

The Distance: Sources

This list provides sources for direct quotations, identified by their closing words.

1 The Fight of the Century

Hollywood-style: Alan Hubbard, 'I want Clay to win this fight', Pretoria News, 8 March 1971, np.

the big money excitement: Solly Jasven, 'The fight that had to be', Sunday Times News Magazine, 4 February 1973, p. 8.

...

can't have sympathy about: David Wright, 'Frazier: Clay's just a shadow on my title', Sunday Times, 7 March 1971, p. 1.

fight with Cassius Clay: ibid, p. 10.

slogan-spouting Black Muslim: 'Bull v. Butterfly: A Clash of Champions', Time, 8 March 1971, p. 28.

...

first thing about boxing: 'Bull v. Butterfly: A Clash of Champions', Time, 8 March 1971, p. 25.

show business spectacular: ibid.

his yeah-man: ibid, p. 31.

customized Cadillacs: 'Return of the Ringmaster', Time, 9 November 1970, p. 35.

2 Lessons

also known as Muhammad Ali: 'Taken as red', Pretoria News, 9 March 1971, p. 1.

application from the boxer: 'Clay says he has visa but ...', Star, 27 July 1971, np.

shadow boxing with Clay? Pretoria News, mid 1972?, np.

despatched another opponent: 'Cassius tortures opponent', Pretoria News, 20 July 1972, np.

anything else that beat Lewis: ibid.

...

out of Ali's shadow': Dan Gelston, 'Joe Frazier, sharp as a razor', Star, 9 November 2011, p. 13.

sharp as a razor': ibid.

left hand: David Wright, 'Frazier: Clay's just a shadow on my title', Sunday Times, 7 March 1971, p. 1.

I said I was the greatest: 'Bull v. Butterfly: A Clash of Champions', Time, 8 March 1971, p. 30.

'the last hurray': Jeff Powell, 'One last hurray for Ali, the greatest of all time', Star, 17 January 2012, p. 21.

3 Doubles

the Great Himself: Malcolm Balfour, 'Clay's girth grows as talking takes over', Sunday Express, 7 March 1971, p. 16.

Flash!: ibid.

juice up the theatre gate: ibid.

the name's Ali': ibid.

if you prefer it, Muhammad Ali: Alan Hubbard, 'I want Clay to win this fight', Pretoria News, 8 March 1971, np.

has faded away: Special Correspondent, 'The sad truth about Clay', publication unclear, October 1971.

get back in shape: 'Clay not in line', Pretoria News, ? January 1972, np.

called him Cassius Clay': 'Ali seeks to destroy his "monster"', ? Star, 10 September 1973, np.

even the real Ali: David Wright, 'The public face and private thoughts of ... Muhammad Ali', Sunday Times News Magazine, 8 September 1974, p. 1.

...

who landed at long range: 'The big fight – round by round', Pretoria News, 9 March 1971, np.

to the head landed at long range: ibid.

4 Americans

as chewing gum: 'Now it's Joe for Ali', Pretoria News, ? 17 May 1975, np.

of a sinking ship: Alan Hubbard, 'Cassius was too cocky', Pretoria News, 9 March 1971, np.

...

mothers and children: 'Clowning Clay faces the big test', Pretoria News, 26 July 1971, np.

his famed left jab: ibid.

variety-hall act: ibid.

mandatory eight count: 'The big fight – round by round', Pretoria News, 9 March 1971, np.

would be a miracle: 'Cassius will go in a bit bored against Ellis', ? Star, ? 26 July 1971, np.

to satisfy a few people: 'Clay demolishes Buster Mathis', Pretoria News, 18 November 1971, p. 2.

in front of them?: 'Clay (I can't get mad) says boxing is silly', Pretoria News, 19 November 1971, np.

beating each other up: ibid.

ever held in Japan: 'Clay is points victor', ? Pretoria News, ? 1 April 1972, np.

Foster to hit him: ibid.

I have ever punched: Gilbert Odd, 'Ali and the 'Ammer again', Pretoria News, 27 September 1975, p. 7.

don't like Coloured people: 'It will be a riot – Cassius', Pretoria News, ? 27 June 1972, np.

called me a nigger: ibid.

ready for him now: 'I'm ready for Frazier – Clay', Pretoria News, 28 June 1972, p. 32.

the Irish Tourist Board: Alan Hubbard, 'On stage at Croke Park', Second in a four-part series, Pretoria News, ? July 1972, np.

doesn't swallow it: Alan Hubbard, 'Muhammad goes to the mountains', First of a four-part series, Pretoria News, 13 July 1972, np.

Are you for Muhammad Ali? Yes: Alan Hubbard, 'On stage at Croke Park', Second in a four-part series, Pretoria News, ? July 1972, np.

big, black Buttons: ibid.

he's an actor: ibid.

as good as I am: ibid.

five whole minutes: 'Bull v. Butterfly: A Clash of Champions', Time, 8 March 1971, p. 29.

blessed to draw crowds: Alan Hubbard, 'On stage at Croke Park', Second in a four-part series, Pretoria News, ? July 1972, np.

...

has got punch!: no details, ? late 1972/early 1973.

Negro boxer Al Jones: ‘Ali: “A serious, non-political fight”’, ? Pretoria News, ? September/October 1972, np.

chauffeur-driven cars: Theo Mthembu, ‘Ali to box here’, publication unclear, ? January 1973, np.

a White House boy: ‘Cassius is hot favourite’, Pretoria News, 19 September 1972, np.

He’s a real gentleman: ibid.

and draw a crowd: ‘Ali: Who needs it?’, publication unclear, ? early 1973.

call him a coward: ‘Appeal by Cassius’, Pretoria News, 29 June 1972, np.

heavyweight champion of the world: ‘Foreman is a potential killer’, Sunday Times, 28 January 1973, p. 5.

Who needs it?: ‘Ali: Who needs it?’, publication unclear, ? early 1973.

in heaven, in round seven: Desmond Hackett, ‘Clay given surprise’, Pretoria News, 15 February 1973, np.

enough action for you?: Alan Hubbard, ‘Defeat with dignity’, Pretoria News, p. 3.

5 Silence

positive thinking for you!: ‘Unspeakable defeat – words fail Ali’, ? Star, 2 April 1973, p. 1.

he can’t talk: ‘End of the road for Ali?’, Pretoria News, 2 April 1973, p. 2.

the Muhammad Ali era: ibid.

world champion, George Foreman: ibid.

to announce his retirement: Colin Hart, ‘Ali ... pack it in now!’, Sunday Times, 1 April 1973, np.

as a world title contender: Norman Canale, ‘Clay’s exit was no shock to Lessing’, Sunday Times, 1 April 1973, np.

corpses from the fistic graveyard: ibid.

wired for silence: Colin Hart, ‘Ali ... pack it in now!’, Sunday Times, 1 April 1973, np.

shut for six weeks: ‘Unspeakable defeat – words fail Ali’, ? Star, 2 April 1973, p. 1.

couldn’t speak his mind: ibid.

away from fast women: ‘Broken jaw hasn’t crossed Ali’s wires’, publication unclear, ? 2 April 1973.

...

big money excitement: Solly Jasven, 'The fight that had to be', Sunday Times News Magazine, 4 February 1973, p. 8.

fly all over the place: Alan Hubbard, 'The Lip must keep mouth buttoned', Star, 7 September 1973, np.

nuts and bolts: 'Ali seeks to destroy his "monster"', ? Star, ? 10 September 1973, np.

bee had lost its sting: Alan Hubbard, 'Ali floats, but cannot sting', publication unclear, ? 11 September 1973, np.

they take it out of you: 'Clay complains of signs of old age', publication unclear, ? September 1973.

don't get any: 'Why the fuss about my jaw? – Ali', publication unclear, ? end October 1973, np.

you call me Muhammad Ali: 'Ali goes wild at signing', no details, ? late 1973.

...

white-faced and shaking: Colin Hart, 'Ali ... pack it in now!', Sunday Times, 1 April 1973, np.

7 Poems

it rhymes with Moore: Gilbert Odd, 'Moore in four', Pretoria News, 24 September 1975, p. 32.

not yet seen Cassius Clay: ibid.

hits like a ton: 'Bull v. Butterfly: A Clash of Champions', Time, 8 March 1971, p. 28.

usually sombre occasion: Gilbert Odd, 'That big, ugly bear', Pretoria News, 25 September 1975, p. 33.

the people behind him: 'I'm hero of the world, claims Ali', no details, ? late January/early February 1974.

I'm a great fighter: 'Winner Ali bubbles over with friendship', no details, ? late January 1974, p. 3.

This was a great event: John Morris, 'I want Ali in there with me – Foreman', no details, ? late January 1974, p. 3.

Joe, you are the Greatest: ? Sunday Times, 7 March 1971, np.

You got to talk: 'I'll get him next time – Clay', ? Pretoria News, ? 9 or 10 March 1971, np.

he told reporters: 'Never mind, Ali, we still love you', Scope, 2 April 1971, p. 14.

can set men free: 'Why White America wanted to destroy Clay', Pretoria News, ? late June 1971, np.

three children,' he said: 'Clowning Clay faces the big test', Pretoria News, 26 July 1971, np.

to please the crowd: 'Ali says he showed mercy', Pretoria News, 27 July 1971, p. 1.

just give me my money: 'Tax men victimise me – Ali', publication unclear, 27 July 1971, np.

will fall in four: 'Bull v. Butterfly: A Clash of Champions', Time, 8 March 1971, p. 30.

My fists have proved my: 'Poet Cassius is so proud of his repertoire of verses', no details, 1971.

the hypocrites in the power structure: 'Why White America wanted to destroy Clay', Pretoria News, ? late June 1971, np.

quip as a left jab: 'Broken jaw hasn't crossed Ali's wires', publication unclear, ? 2 April 1973.

I'm lyrical, I'm fresh, I'm smart: 'Poet Cassius is so proud of his repertoire of verses', no details, 1971.

...

Muhammad's Mountain: 'Ali flattened – it don't look right!', publication unclear, ? July 1974.

what you teach him: Norman Canale, 'Ali and the little pink elephant', Sunday Times, 11 August 1974, p. 21.

left hooks and straight rights: ibid.

put him in the pot: 'Foreman in two – now for Ali!', ? Pretoria News, 27 March 1974, np.

your Christian tail: 'Foreman, Ali in hotel brawl', ? Star, 23 June 1974.

black Americans are going home: 'Ali on his way "home"', publication unclear, September 1974.

whistling in Darkest Africa: Alan Hubbard, 'It's goodbye to eternal butterfly', Star, np.

boxing's chieftain: Alan Hubbard, 'New date set for big fight', ? Star, September 1974, np.

phone in that country: 'The ads don't fit the facts', Star, 16 August 1974, np.

telex machine in mid-sentence: 'Censors may lose Zaire the Ali fight', Pretoria News, 23 September 1974, p. 2.

around Foreman's eye: Alan Hubbard, 'Where bad news is no news', ? Star, September 1974, np.

ringside commentator Regional News: no details, ? late September 1974.

...

George Foreman's behind: Joe Durso, 'Muhammad on the mountain', Star, 20 August 1974, np.

George Foreman's rump: 'Ali looks world-weary', ? Pretoria News, ? September 1974.

London Bridge will fall down: Gilbert Odd, 'Ali and the 'Ammer again', Pretoria News, 27 September 1975, p. 7.

I injured a stone: 'Muhammad Ali talks up a storm', Star, ? August 1974.

I make medicine sick: David Wright, 'The public face and private thoughts of ... Muhammad Ali', Sunday Times News Magazine, 8 September 1974, p. 1.

the right protection: 'Winner Ali bubbles over with friendship', publication unclear, ? late January 1974, p. 3.

like to see him win: 'Broken jaw hasn't crossed Ali's wires', publication unclear, ? 2 April 1973.

to bow and smile: Joe Durso, 'Muhammad on the mountain', Star, 20 August 1974, np.

wrote his own doggerel: 'Ali is greatest – talker', no details, ? October 1974.

to buy someone who can: original in Afrikaans, no details, ? May/June 1975.

8 Tactics

and it dazed Ellis: 'Clay's new weapon', Pretoria News, 17 November 1971, p. 32.

won't know where he is: ibid.

makes you linger on: 'Clay wins unanimous decision', ? Star, 18 November 1971, np.

and tears it: 'Henry Cooper: Part 3', Personality, 30 July 1971, p. 79.

and I'll finish him off: 'Bugner bout Ali's last?', publication unclear, ? May 1975.

do what I'm doing: 'Now it's Joe for Ali', Pretoria News, ? 17 May 1975, np.

a man of my experience: 'Ali's got a new waltz move', ? Pretoria News, ? June 1975.

when he gets one of these in: ibid.

will be against the law: Alan Hubbard, 'Ali's talk of retirement – all part of the build-up?', ? Star, June 1975, np.

tell you the name later: 'New tactic will topple Bugner – Ali', ? Pretoria News, ? June 1975.

out of hitting range: ibid.

9 Pictures

getting acquainted: 'Still time to relax', no details, ? August 1974.

this Ali-cat show: 'Ali invites a cool cat to his camp', Star, 3 September 1974, np.

got a face like one too: Ronald B. Scott, 'Muhammad Ali's last fight', Scope, 20 September 1974, p. 22.

looked worse than it was: 'Henry Cooper: Part 3', Personality, 30 July 1971, p. 81.

open like a mouth: ibid., p. 79.

...

motorized Marciano: 'Bull v. Butterfly: A Clash of Champions', Time, 8 March 1971, p. 28.

the Frazier engine room: 'Ali proves the bee still stings', Star, 29 January 1974, p. 38.

patching up the wound: Alan Hubbard, 'Defeat with dignity', Pretoria News, p. 3.

thudding, bulldozer fists: Alan Hubbard, 'It's goodbye to eternal butterfly', Star, np.

sweet and hard: 'Henry Cooper: Part 3', Personality, 30 July 1971, p. 79.

something went pop: Alan Hubbard, 'Ali's back – but not the same', Pretoria News, ? 11 September 1973, np.

crucial point of a fight: 'Henry Cooper: Part 3', Personality, 30 July 1971, p. 79.

a mask of red: ibid., p. 81.

knuckle to my shoulder: 'Jerry Quarry demolishes opponent', Pretoria News, 17 November 1971, p. 32.

get his kidneys busted!: 'Bull v. Butterfly: A Clash of Champions', Time, 8 March 1971, p. 29.

he lives – in the body: ibid., p. 31.

10 Questions

coming to cause trouble: 'Clay will not try to cause trouble in South Africa', Pretoria News, ? July 1971, np.

would be called off: 'Clay may fight in SA', Pretoria News, ? July 1972, np.

in the political situation: ibid.

that kind of question: ibid.

boxing authorities and Government: 'Govt stalls so Ali's SA fight is postponed', Pretoria News, ? July 1972, np.

children to look like us: ‘Ali: “A serious, non-political fight”’, ? Pretoria News, ? September/October 1972, np.

marry out of his race: David Wright, ‘The public face and private thoughts of ... Muhammad Ali’, Sunday Times News Magazine, 8 September 1974, p. 6. that’s what my mission is: ‘Why White America wanted to destroy Clay’, Pretoria News, ? late June 1971, np.

11 The Rumble in the Jungle worried look on his face: ‘The big fight – round by round’, Pretoria News, 9 March 1971, np.

a non-stop operation: ‘The ref sums up: Both took it’, Star, 9 March 1971, np.

another great colour scoop: ‘Fight of Century colour scoop’, Sunday Express, 14 March 1971, p. 1.

sports project of all time: Alan Husband [Hubbard?], ‘Zaire scoops world fight’, ? Star, ? March 1974.

film or football match: ‘The whiz-kid behind the greatest show on planet earth’, Star, 20 April 1974, np.

traditions of boxing upside down: Alan Hubbard, ‘All this – and Muhammad Ali too’, Star, 14 September 1974, np.

Garden, or Miami Beach: Alan Hubbard, ‘It’s goodbye to eternal butterfly’, Star, np.

of Zurich – and Cairo: Alan Hubbard, ‘All this – and Muhammad Ali too’, Star, 14 September 1974, np.

Tokyo, Japan, Caracas, Venezuela: Alan Hubbard, ‘It’s goodbye to eternal butterfly’, Star, np.

a giant TV studio: Alan Hubbard, ‘All this – and Muhammad Ali too’, Star, 14 September 1974, np.

contact Cine 16 now: ‘Scoop!’, Pretoria News, no details.

a week of the contest: ‘Ali – Foreman on SA screens’, Sunday Times, 22 September 1974, p. 22.

13 Limits

the surgeon's scissors: Alan Hubbard, 'Flabby Ali could be in for a shock', Pretoria News, ? 24 March 1975, np.

back in 1970: Richard Walker, 'Wepner: Occult versus a damn legend', no details.

Tomato ketchup?: Alan Hubbard, 'Flabby Ali could be in for a shock', Pretoria News, ? 24 March 1975, np.

all the other White heavyweights: 'Chuck gets tilt at Ali's title', Pretoria News, 15 January 1975, p. 36.

curse signs: Richard Walker, 'Wepner: Occult versus a damn legend', no details.

savage, almost sadistic torture: Alan Hubbard, '15 rounds of agony', Pretoria News, 25 March 1975, np.

...

White group of newspapers: 'Ali defends coming visit to SA', Pretoria News, 11 February 1975, p. 3.

atmosphere that the Whites do: ibid.

to help needy Blacks: Liz Brown, 'Ali says it again: I'll fight in SA to aid TEACH', no details.

...

fighters traded punches: 'The big fight – round by round', Pretoria News, 9 March 1971, np.

...

one of second-degree assault: 'It's a steal, admits Ali', no details.

dirt-poor Muslim school: ibid.

low wages: 'Only a million dollars, says Ali', no details.

It was comic: Scott Hagen, 'It's Ali – in the farce of the year', publication unclear, 17 May 1975.

...

Well, they soon will: 'Religion dictated Ali venue', ? Pretoria News.

Malaysian art of self-defence: 'Malaysia makes a mountain of the Muhammad', Star.

and he can't fight: no details.

back on the map: Alan Hubbard, 'Queen will be watching big fight on TV – Ali', publication unclear, June 1975.

would you like some tea?: ibid.

can't stand it is politeness: Alan Hubbard, 'Joe believes in stiff upper lip', publication unclear, 1975.

by the knick-knacks: 'The moment I knew I had Ali licked – Bugner', publication unclear, ? 25 June 1975.

He can't stand that either: Alan Hubbard, 'Joe believes in stiff upper lip', publication unclear, 1975.

The gloves should be white: 'I won't hang Bugner – Ali', publication unclear, June 1975.

multi-coloured palms: Alan Hubbard, 'It's going to be a big sweat for Joe Bugner', Star, ? 30 June 1975, np.

audience of Muslim brothers: ibid.

rattling dry bones: Alan Hubbard, 'The ref may bug Ali?', ? Star, June 1975.

phrases referring to the fight: 'Even drinks get the Ali touch', ? Pretoria News, ? June 1975.

pyramids of Egypt are crumbling: 'Last-fight Ali is "decaying"', ? Star, June 1975.

and it's getting worse: 'Now Ali's going to retire, but ...', ? Pretoria News, June 1975.

and the right connections: Alan Hubbard, 'No sweat in Ali triumph', ? Star, ? 1 July 1975, p. 1.

14 The Thriller in Manila

I've been studying karate: 'It'll be a thriller when Ali fights the Gorilla', ? Star, ? September 1975.

a once noble art: Ray Woodley, 'Ali, it's time to stop the clowning', Sunday Express, 17 August 1975, p. 40.

hero as a schoolboy: Ray Woodley, 'You are wrong, Maurice', Sunday Express, 17 August 1975, p. 40.

There, I filled your pad: Pete Axthelm with Peter Bonventre, 'The Ali Mystique', publication unclear, September 1975.

a single sporting event: 'Socko of a lifetime', publication unclear, September 1975.

helpers and walk-around guys: Pete Axthelm with Peter Bonventre, 'The Ali Mystique', publication unclear, September 1975.

I ain't never seen before: Alan Hubbard, 'Fighting is the least of weary Ali's worries', Pretoria News, 17 September 1975, p. 3.

- uglier than you are: Alan Hubbard, 'Thriller in Manila', Pretoria News, 2 July 1975, p. 36.
- I'm a compulsive eater: Alan Hubbard, 'Fighting is the least of weary Ali's worries', Pretoria News, 17 September 1975, p. 3.
- all this fame and power: Pete Axthelm with Peter Bonventre, 'The Ali Mystique', publication unclear, September 1975.
- for having a girlfriend: 'My wife and my girlfriend – by Ali', ? Pretoria News, September 1975.
- Women libbers are outraged: 'Frazier is ladies man', Sunday Times, 28 September 1975, p. 28.
- trained for their title defences: Ray Woodley, 'Send Ali to the ZOO', Sunday Express, 28 September 1975, p. 40.
- still be the world champion: 'Frazier: Watch wife, Ali tells Marcos', no details, September 1975.
- like an adder's lick: Alan Hubbard, 'Ali wins on a TKO', Pretoria News, ? 2 October 1975, p. 1.
- stops you from moving: Dave Anderson, 'Ali never looked like this before', ? Pretoria News, ? 2 October 1975, p. 3.
- what they have to say: Alan Hubbard, 'Ali swansong in Haiti?', Pretoria News, ? 2 October 1975, np.
- a natural to play himself: 'Shooting the champ', no details, ? mid-1975.
- once everything has quitened [sic] down: Geoff van Heerden, 'Richards is after Ali', Pretoria News, 14 August 1975, p. 26.
- ...
- you are introduced to him: Norman Canale, 'Clay is no great', ? Sunday Times, 1972.